

How do we know it's working?

Tracking the impact of Global Learning

Twilight £250 | Half Day £350 | Full Day £600

Book: office@18hours.org.uk

Aims of the course:

This engaging and practical course demonstrates newly developed methods for measuring the impact of your Global Learning work on pupils' attitudes and values. Find out, with simple and effective techniques, what ideas and attitudes your pupils already hold, in order to create better teaching and learning opportunities, and gather evidence of the impact to share with colleagues.

Expected outcomes of the course:

- To provide educators with tools to assess the impact of their Global Learning on pupils' attitudes and values, as well as knowledge and understanding.
- To improve the quality of Global Learning and participants' confidence to deliver Global Education.

Embedding global learning in your teaching:

- Through using methodologies for measuring attitudinal change, teachers will be better able to adjust their curriculum planning and activities beyond the curriculum, to support the development of good global citizens in their school.

Course aimed at:

KS2 and KS3

Curriculum subjects explored in this course:

Maths, English, Science, Geography, History, RS, Citizenship, PSHE, MFL, Art, Drama

Format:	Maximum participants:	Ratio of participants : trainers:
Workshop	40	1:20

Trainer details:

Mandy Curtis: PhD Human Geography, PGCE Primary Education, BA (Hons) History of Art and Archaeology Asia and Africa, accredited Global Teacher Award Trainer. Mandy has taught for 20 years and worked in a DEC since 2000.

Ruth England: PGCert Education for Sustainability, PGCE Post Compulsory Education, BA Hons Fine Art, accredited Connecting Classrooms Trainer. Ruth has delivered training for 14 years and worked in a DEC for nine years. Mandy and Ruth have delivered training in schools together for nine years. They have delivered similar courses to whole school staff teams in Sussex as well as delivering key note talks and workshops at numerous conferences and events.

Other information:

18 Hours is a social enterprise with a passion for fostering global understanding through education and events. We are committed to environmental sustainability, diversity and inclusivity and the promotion of good practice. 18 Hours is now a regional Development Education Centre, working with teachers across East Sussex, who are interested in including global learning within the curriculum.